

Session 4

Chair: Steve Walker

IRF Conference

Vancouver, October 2010

Key questions for the session

- What do Performance Indicators show?
- How is the available data collected and used to manage risk?

Who needs performance data, & why?

- Offshore workforce
 - Information
 - Reassurance
 - Secure their involvement
- Offshore managers and supervisors
 - Are we safe? Are we improving?
 - Is what we're doing working?
 - Where are the problems?
- Onshore asset managers
 - Are the safety issues being managed offshore?
 - Where are my problems assets?
 - Identifying weaknesses

Who needs performance data, & why?

- Senior managers and Board members
 - Business risk management
 - Early warning by identifying trends
 - Developing improvement strategies
 - Steer conversations – why are you not performing, and what are you going to do!
- Regulators
 - Notification for action
 - Immediate/long term resource decisions
 - Confirmation of success/failure!

Who needs performance data, & why?

- Politicians
 - Reassurances
 - Strategic prioritisation and investment
- The Public
 - Transparency
 - Information
 - Reassurance

Who needs performance data, & why?

- even IRF Conference delegates!!

Programme today.....

- Torlief
 - Norwegian process for measuring overall risk levels in Norwegian offshore industry
- Jason
 - What is the global offshore safety data?
- Tim
 - How one company tackles safety performance information
- Robert
 - How an industry association has captured leading KPIs to effect change across operators