

thoughtful

Lessons In Collaboration

Laura Petrie
Partner

ledingham|chalmers^{LLP}
SOLICITORS

ABERDEEN • EDINBURGH • INVERNESS • STIRLING

Introduction

- Background
- Learning Lessons

Pre-Piper

“Collective Conscience but Individual Responsibility”

- Silo Responses
- Corporate ‘self-preservation’
- Systemic Failures
- Lack of Cohesive Plan

Post-Piper

“Collective Responsibility with an Individual Conscience”

- Collegiate environment – including corporate
- Workforce Engagement
- Process Control
- Clearer Lines of (Appropriate) Authority

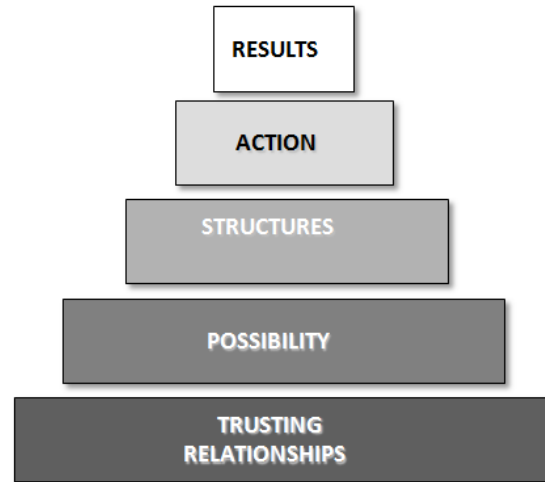

Collaboration on Safety

- Building Trust
- Identifying Risks and Rewards
- Timing and Timelines
- Mutuality
- Continuing Engagement

Now

- Lessons Learnt or Box Ticking?
- Cultural Change
- Mandated Collaboration
- Continued Development

Building Trust

“In the end all there is, is relationships” - Martin Buber

Credit – Norton Bertram-Smith, On Purpose

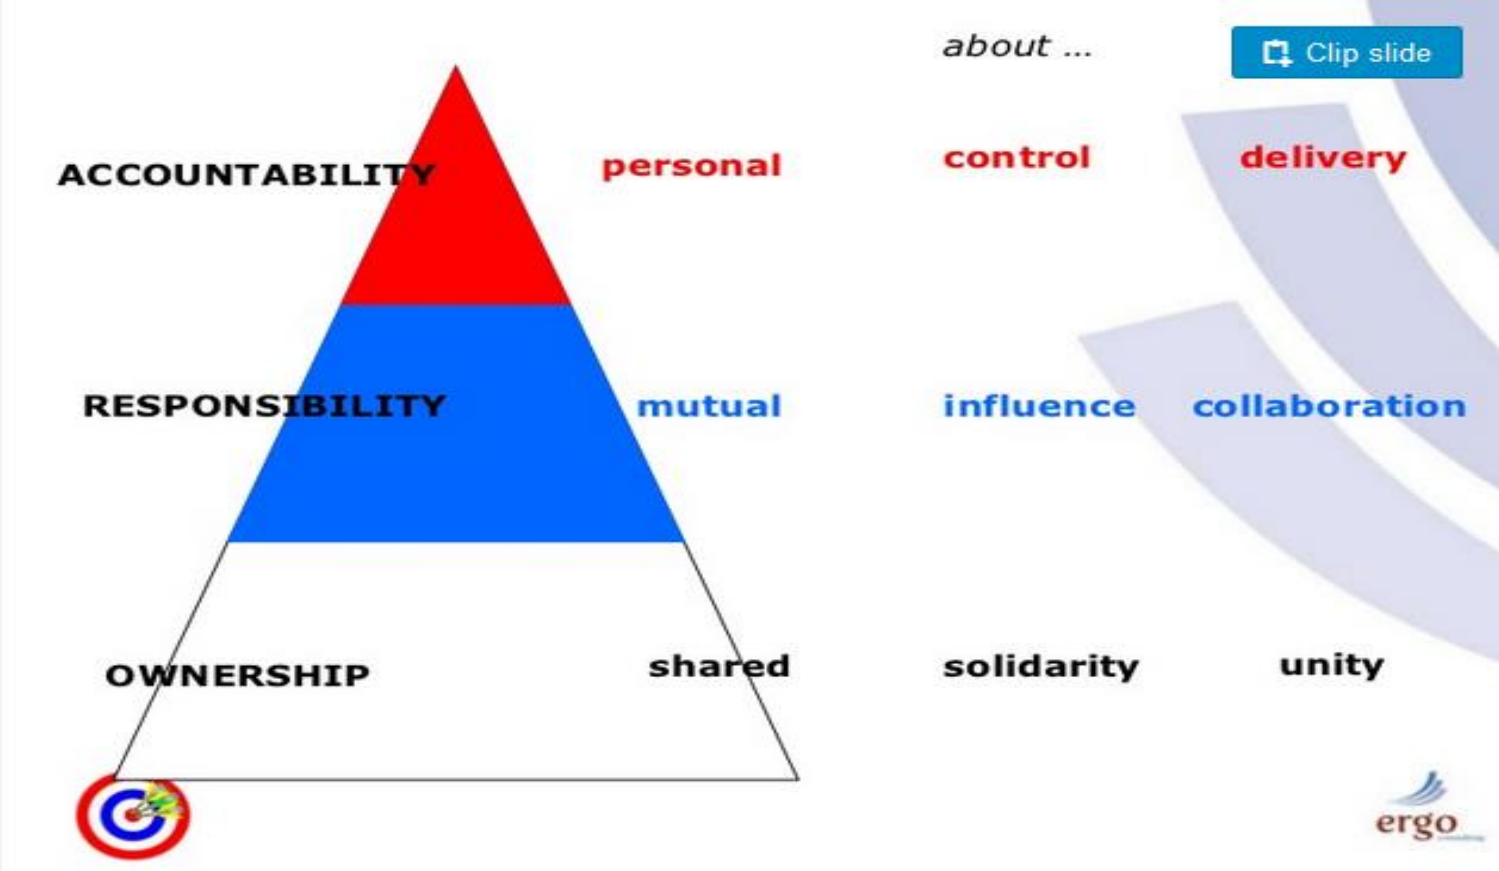

Identifying Risks and Rewards

- Value Matrix – internal and external, societal and economic
- Implications of Rewards
- Structuring Responses

Timing and Timelines

- Delays and Deadlines
- Modelling and Stress Testing
- Compliance or Pre-emptive

Mutuality

Continuing Engagement

- Review
- Revise
- Retain

Conclusions

- Applying Lessons

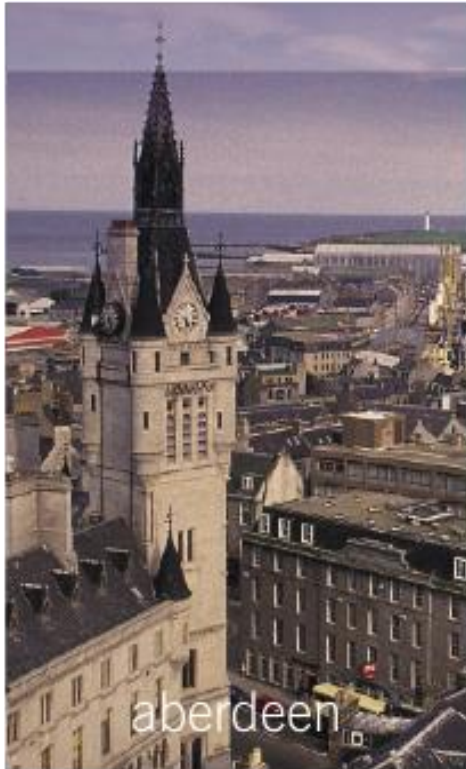

thoughtful

Questions?

ledingham|chalmers^{LLP}
SOLICITORS

ABERDEEN • EDINBURGH • INVERNESS • STIRLING

widespread

ledingham | chalmers^{LLP}
SOLICITORS

ABERDEEN • EDINBURGH • INVERNESS • STIRLING